

Weinberg Capital Partners strengthens its teams with new recruitments

Weinberg Capital Partners announces the arrival of three new employees to strengthen its teams. Thus, Xavier Fulda, Maxence Kasper and Camille Rousseau join the company respectively as Financial Controller, Director (Eiréné team) and Associate (LBO team).

Xavier Fulda joins Weinberg Capital Partners as Financial Controller. Reporting to Nathalie Besse, Secretary General, he is in charge of the administrative and financial management of the company's various investment funds.

Xavier began his career in 2015 in the Financial Audit department of Deloitte, where he worked for more than three years in the TMT (Technology – Media – Telecommunications) and Investment Fund sectors. In 2018, he was hired by Altamir, a listed private equity company, as a Financial Analyst with the missions of monitoring portfolio holdings, investor relations and financial communication.

Xavier is a graduate of Paris-Panthéon-Assas University and of NEOMA Business School.

Maxence Kasper joins the Eiréné team as Director. Thus, he works in close collaboration with Lionel Mestre, Partner - Managing Director of Eiréné expertise, and David Lebain, Senior Director. He participates in the origination, execution and negotiation of transactions as well as the monitoring of future portfolio companies.

Maxence began his career in the M&A department of the Lazard bank in Paris in 2009 before joining the French sovereign wealth fund where he was part of the Mid and Large Cap team investing and monitoring portfolio companies across several sectors including Industry, Transport and Technological services. In 2017, he was appointed Principal at Gimv to participate in the launch of a sector team dedicated to urbanization and BtoB services in France.

Maxence holds a master's degree in Finance and Strategy from Sciences Po Paris.

Finally, Camille Rousseau has been recruited as an Associate within the LBO team, after completing a gap-year internship there in the first half of 2022. Under the supervision of Philippe Klocanas, Partner – Managing Director of LBO expertise, she contributes to the monitoring of portfolio companies and the search for new investment opportunities.

Previously, Camille completed several internships, including one in M&A, at the investment bank Atout Capital.

Camille is a graduate of ESSEC Business School and of Paris-Dauphine University.

About Weinberg Capital Partners

Founded in 2005, Weinberg Capital Partners is an independent investment company historically active in buy-out capital, which expanded its field of intervention to real estate assets in 2008, and has been investing since 2015 in the capital of listed French SMEs/mid-caps as a minority shareholder with an active, friendly and long-term approach. In 2020, Weinberg Capital Partners added its capacity to invest in SMEs/mid-caps with a minority strategy focused on sustainable development issues, which offers extra-financial support known as impact, to better prepare companies for environmental and societal challenges. In 2023, Weinberg Capital Partners created a new fund, Eiréné, dedicated to the development of SMEs/mid-caps in the security and defense sector.

With €1,3 billion of assets under management, Weinberg Capital Partners is a significant player in the mid-market equity segment in France.

Weinberg Capital Partners is a signatory of the PRI, a member of the International Climate Initiative and an active responsible investor.

Weinberg Capital Partners supports Télémaque, an association for equal opportunities in education.
