

Weinberg Capital Partners launches new €150 million co-investment activity

As it approaches its twentieth anniversary, Weinberg Capital Partners continues to expand its presence in the private equity sector with the launch of a dedicated co-investment fund, WCP Co-Invest. This French vehicle, valued at €150 million, is set to become operational in the fourth quarter of 2024.

Weinberg Capital Partners, an independent management company renowned in the private equity industry, is furthering its development with the deployment of WCP Co-Invest. This launch follows the establishment of the Eiréné expertise, focused on supporting SMEs and mid-caps companies in the security and defense sectors. With this new vehicle, the company aims to be a key player in the consolidation of the French mid-market private equity sector.

This fund, with a capacity of €150 million, is fully subscribed by a family group, demonstrating the strong confidence investors have in Weinberg Capital Partners. This fundraising underscores the company's dynamism despite an uncertain economic environment.

WCP Co-Invest will engage in co-investments on transactions structured by other Weinberg Capital Partners' teams as well as deals initiated by third parties. This new vehicle addresses a growing demand for co-investment solutions, as the tightening of the primary fundraising market drives many players to seek partners to consolidate their portfolios.

To ensure the success of this new initiative, Weinberg Capital Partners is currently recruiting a dedicated team of seasoned professionals in the co-investment field. This team will be responsible for identifying co-investment opportunities and managing the investments.

Serge Weinberg, Founding Chairman of Weinberg Capital Partners, stated: "As we prepare to celebrate our twentieth anniversary next year, we are very pleased to roll out this new co-investment expertise. With €150 million at our disposal, we are well-positioned to offer a new solution in a high-demand market. This launch represents a significant milestone in our growth strategy, complementing our range of private equity and real estate investment expertise."
